

David Laws defeated as Tories regain Yeovil seat after 32 years

DAVID Laws, MP for the Yeovil constituency since 2001, sensationally lost his seat to Conservative challenger Marcus Fysh in last Thursday's general election.

The schools minister was just one of a string of high profile Liberal Democrats to be beaten, with the party having its number of seats slashed from 57 to just eight.

In what was a terrible night for the Lib Dems, former leader Charles Kennedy, Business Secretary Vince Cable, Chief Secretary to the Treasury Danny Alexander and former deputy leader Simon Hughes all lost.

Mr Laws played a key part in negotiations with the Conservatives when the coalition was formed in 2010, and briefly served as Chief Secretary to the Treasury before an expenses scandal forced him to resign after only a few weeks in office.

The Yeovil parliamentary seat has been Liberal since Paddy Ashdown first took it from the Tories in the 1983 election for the then SDP-Liberal Alliance. Mr Laws, who previously had a majority of more than 13,000, was beaten by 5,313 votes - a swing of nearly 19,000. His share of the vote was slashed from 55.7 per cent to a little under a third.

He told people at Westland Leisure Complex, following the announcement of the result at around 6am last Friday: "It's been a massive privilege to have been MP for the past three terms.

"It's been a tough night for the Liberal Democrats in Somerset and nationally, but we will come back again strong in the future."

Mr Laws was gracious in defeat and offered congratulations to his victor - Conservative candidate Marcus Fysh.

"I would like to congratulate Marcus and wish him all the luck for the future," he said.

Mr Laws said that the defeat was "no reflection" on his excellent and hard-working team and that the defeat was the result of a "very big swing" against the Lib Dems.

New MP Marcus Fysh, who has recently served as a district councillor for Yeovil South and a county councillor for Coker, said Mr Laws had gained "universal acclaim" and had proved to be a "very good and efficient constituency MP".

"There will be a lot of people who would like to

by

thank him for what he has done for them," said Mr Fysh.

The new Yeovil MP added: "I am proud to be a fresh voice that Somerset needs."

He said he wanted to be a good local MP, be thoughtful and "listen and learn" from the people of Yeovil.

"I look forward to working with you," he said.

Mr Fysh was born in 1970, moved to England from Australia aged three, and went to school in Bristol, London and Hampshire.

He is from a medical family and has a background in business and investment. He joined Mercury Asset Management, the blue chip British pension fund investment firm, in 1993. And in 2003 he used his experience to set up his own business focusing on growth opportunities in the Asia Pacific region, Europe and the UK, including farming, housing development and medical research.

The other losing candidates - UKIP's Simon Smedley, Labour's Sheena King and Emily McIvor of the Green Party - all thanked the people who voted for them and congratulated Mr Fysh on his win.

Ms King said: "Congratulations to Marcus, but commiserations to David because he has been an excellent MP for this area".

In the neighbouring Somerton & Frome constituency, which covers Martock, the Lib Dems also lost to the Tories. Incumbent MP David Heath announced his retirement in 2013 and David Rendel, who was chosen as the Lib Dem candidate last September, couldn't hold off the challenge from Conservative David Warburton. The Tory candidate won with 31,960 votes, a majority of more than 20,000 and a 53 per cent share of the vote.

Crewkerne Town Council election results

THE make-up of Crewkerne Town Council has remained unchanged following last week's local election.

The 12 members of the council all stood for re-election and they got the votes they needed to serve the town for another four years.

Cllr Mike Best topped the poll with 1,965 votes - 321 votes ahead of second-placed Cllr Angie Singleton.

Also re-elected were Cllrs Rusty Jackson, Robin Pailthorpe, Jo Dawson, Sylvia Allman, Kathy Head, Neil Sturtivant, Ben Hodgson, Dan Wakeman, Katy Pritchard and Andrew Stuart.

It means there are 11 Liberal Democrats on the council with one independent, Cllr Katy Pritchard.

It was a disappointing election for the Green Party as they had ten candidates, but none of them gained enough support. Labour candidate Martin Bailey also missed out.

Elected:

Michael Raymond Best 1,965; Angie Singleton 1,644; Rusty Jackson 1,628; Robin Christopher Pailthorpe 1,616; Jo Dawson 1,546; Sylvia Mary Allman 1,544; Kathy Head 1,452; Neil Sturtivant 1,396; Benjamin Thomas Hodgson 1,293; Daniel John Wakeman 1,227; Katy Pritchard 1,224; Andrea Jean Stuart 1,204.

Not Elected:

Ben Keiron Hartshorn 991; Louise Marian Brazier 986; Martin John Bailey 960; Rhianon Francine Bambury 950; Michael Bernard Fox 893; Deborah Jane Latham 878; Nathan Harmer-Taylor 875; Daniel James Shearing 846; Nick Hope Wilson 827; Katy Limmer 747; Paul Kieron Stuffins 562.

EAST DEVON

Hugo Swire elected for fourth term

HUGO Swire stormed to victory with an increased majority in last week's parliamentary election, as Ottery St Mary councillor Claire Wright fell short in her challenge for the East Devon seat.

Mr Swire, the constituency's Conservative MP since 2001, claimed a comprehensive fourth victory with more than 25,000 votes and a majority of 12,261.

Independent candidate Claire Wright's unlikely bid for parliament came to an end, despite an impressive second place and almost a quarter of the vote share – the strongest showing by an independent anywhere in the country.

From the editor's chair No real threat to Tories

THE Tories retained control of East Devon District Council, albeit with a slightly reduced majority.

No surprises there then and we should congratulate all those who won a seat at last week's election.

A majority reduced from 25 to 15 seats will make little or no difference to the running of East Devon but we should not underestimate the performance from the Independents who between them grabbed 16 seats.

Although they failed to unseat too many of the big hitters with leader Paul Diviani, deputy leader Andrew Moulding, chairman Graham Godbeer and planning chairman Helen Parr, all retaining their seats, the East Devon Alliance did win 10 places on the council, the most successful challenge by a rival party since the council came into being in 1974. With the Lib Dems' six seats, down from 10, the Tories are unlikely to get it all their own way – and that's good for local democracy.

One unacceptable part of the local elections was the failure of EDDC to announce the results of the town and parish elections until mid-morning on Monday. All the votes were counted on Saturday but not posted on the EDDC website.

A number of candidates were up in arms over this, describing it as an affront to the parishes. I tend to agree.

Neil Parish and Hugo Swire, as expected, retained their parliamentary seats for the Conservatives, but a word of congratulations here to Claire Wright, county councillor for Ottery St Mary, who polled more than 13,000 as an Independent without party machinery behind her.

I was personally disappointed that David Laws lost his Yeovil seat. I am not a Lib Dem but I thought he was a great constituency MP and always handled the press superbly.

SIDMOUTH

Council move to blame for Conservative defeats at district election, says Hughes

CONSERVATIVE councillor Stuart Hughes said East Devon District Council's handling of the Knowle site situation played a major role in the outcome of the election.

Councillor Hughes, the only surviving Conservative after the party lost six of seven seats across the three Sidmouth wards, said the relocation project should have been handled "far more transparently".

Speaking on the podium straight after it had been confirmed that he will be joined in Sidmouth/Sidford Ward by Independent East Devon Alliance councillors Dawn Manley and Marianne Rixson, he said: "The Conservative team is what I cast as a very strong team for Sidmouth/Sidford."

"For the people of Sidmouth, they had their say and they had their say in Sid Valley – and you've got to respect what the people say."

"There were a couple of issues here, the main one was how this whole issue of the Knowle was handled."

Following Thursday's district council elections, Sidmouth Town Ward saw a clean sweep by Independent candidates.

SOUTH SOMERSET

David Laws defeated as Tories regain Yeovil seat after 32 years

DAVID Laws, MP for the Yeovil constituency since 2001, sensationally lost his seat to Conservative challenger Marcus Fysh in last Thursday's general election.

The Yeovil parliamentary seat has been Liberal since Paddy Ashdown first took it from the Tories in the 1983 election for the then SDP-Liberal Alliance.

HONITON

Deputy mayor loses his seat in shock election result

A SHOCK result in last week's town council election has seen Honiton's deputy mayor stripped of his seat.

John Zarczynski, a member of the council since his co-opted in 2011, failed in his attempt to be re-elected after a surprise result was announced yesterday (Monday).

He was one of four serving councillors to lose their positions as almost a dozen new faces were voted in.

While a significant shake-up was expected, Mr Zarczynski's defeat has come as a big surprise.

Les Bayliss, Les Lunt and Peter Corke were the other serving councillors to miss out on a seat.

SEATON

New candidate Marcus Hartnell tops polls for town and district council

ALL those seeking re-election to Seaton Town Council succeeded, but it was new candidate Marcus Hartnell who topped the polls with 2,020 votes.

The result wasn't made official until Monday morning because of delays at East Devon District Council, but it confirmed a remarkable double for the Seaton newsagent who also topped the polls for the Seaton Ward in the district council elections.

Pulman's View was unable to obtain comment from Mr Hartnell on Monday, but after his district triumph last Friday he said: "A big thank you to the people of Seaton. I'm a bit overwhelmed with the support they have given me, so not too much pressure to deliver – but I will certainly do my best."

AXMINSTER

Back in local government after beating the mayor

IAN Hall returned to the political scene by winning the two-horse race for the Axminster Rural seat on East Devon District Council.

Conservative Hall beat Labour candidate (and outgoing Axminster mayor) Jeremy Walden by 1,065 votes to 403 to clinch the seat.

Councillor Hall had a 14-month spell on Axminster Town Council, which came to an end in April 2013 when he resigned over the town council's alleged "inadequate efforts" to investigate any local implications over a Cloakham Lawn planning issue. Mr Hall is one of the driving forces at Cloakham, having succeeded Mr Moulding as chairman.

In his victory speech last Friday he said: "It is a great, great humbling honour."

Independents hold the balance after District Council elections

THREE independent councillors elected to South Somerset District Council have been handed the trump card as to holds power on the 60-seat authority.

The results from Thursday's local election were announced on Friday afternoon and neither the Conservatives nor the Liberal Democrats hold overall power.

The LibDems gained 29 seats, while the Tories picked-up 28 to mean that the three independents of Cllrs Dave Bulmer, of Chard, Andrew Turpin, of Tatworth and Forton, and Tony Capozzoli, of Ivelchester, are now the kingmakers of the authority.

They have to decide who to support out of either the LibDems or Conservatives to give a majority.

The LibDems had been holding a 29-25 advantage going into the final result – that of the Yeovil South Ward. But the Conservatives pulled it out of the bag to take all three seats available in the ward to leave the council with no clear power.

It is understood that the independents now have a couple of weeks in which to discuss and make their minds up on which political group to support.

There will be three Liberal Democrats, one Conservative and one independent representing Chard at the district council. Cllr Jenny Kenton retained her seat and will be joined by LibDem newboys Cllrs Garry Shortland and Jason Baker. Cllr Dave Bulmer, as already mentioned, will be sitting as an independent, while Cllr Amanda Broom won the Chard Combe Ward for the Conservatives.

Total LibDem domination in Crewkerne has been knocked with Cllr Marcus Barrett, of the Conservatives, getting elected alongside Cllrs Mike Best and Angie Singleton, of the LibDems.

But LibDems held firm in Ilminster where Cllrs Carol Goodall and Val Keitch won both seats available.

The big showdown in the Blackdown Ward involving two of the council's elder statesmen was not as close as some might have expected with Conservative candidate Martin Wale, a former Mayor of Chard, seeing off the challenge of the LibDems' Nigel Mermagen by 535 votes.

The council's Area West committee will now consist of: Martin Wale, Garry Shortland, Amanda Broom, Jenny Kenton, Jason Baker, Dave Bulmer, Mike Best, Marcus Barrett, Angie Singleton, Paul Maxwell, Carol Goodall, Val Keitch, Linda Vijeh, Ric Pallister, Andrew Turpin, Sue Osborne.

Councillors no longer on the committee are as follows: John Dyke, Brennie Halse, Nigel Mermagen, Ros Roderigo and Kim Turner.

The political make-up of the Area West committee is as follows: LibDems – 9; Conservative – 5; Independent – 2.

South Somerset District Council election results from the Chard, Ilminster and Crewkerne area are as follows:

Blackdown Ward (one seat): Martin Wale (Con) 923; Nigel Mermagen (LibDems) 388; Ne Arnold (UKIP) 246.

Chard Avishayes Ward (one seat): Garry Shortland (LibDems) 440; Peter Amey (Con) 402; Cath Morrison (Ind) 223; Graham Forsyth (Lab) 148.

Chard Crimchard Ward (one seat): Jenny Kenton (LibDems) 863; Paul Bradley (Con) 445.

Chard Holyrood Ward (one seat): Jason Baker (LibDems) 699; Brennie Halse (Con) 670.

Chard Jocelyn Ward (one seat): Dave Bulmer (Ind) 596; Irene Glynn (Con) 360; Melanie Ann Cherry Hudson (LibDems) 237.

Eggwood Ward (one seat): Paul Maxwell (LibDems) 787; Jonathan Edward Edgington (Con) 687.

Ilminster Ward (two seats): Carol Goodall (LibDems) 1,253; Val Keitch (LibDems) 1,108; Sean Clarke (Con) 1,037; Stuart Shepherd (Con) 1,011; Don Kinder (UKIP) 689; Peter Lansdown (Green) 460; Paul Sellers (Lab) 306.

Neroche Ward (one seat): Linda Vijeh (Con) 893; Jo Dawson (LibDems) 371; Clive Mark Rust (UKIP) 313.

Parrett Ward (one seat): Ric Pallister (LibDems) 785; Mark Keating (Con) 728.

South Petherton (two seats): Adam Dance (LibDems) 1,688; Crispin Kenneth Raikes (LibDems) 1,564; Barry Walker (Con) 1,347.

Tatworth and Forton Ward (one seat): Andrew Turpin (Ind) 608; Russ Wardell (Con) 552; Robin Munday (LibDems) 435.

Windwhistle Ward (one seat): Sue Osborne (Con) 818; John Dyke (LibDems) 469; George Bernard Munro Elliott (UKIP) 196.

NOTE: South Petherton Ward is included in South Somerset District Council's Area North.

The sun'll come out tomorrow!

THE youth group of Broadway Amateur Theatrical Society was bursting with energy, enthusiasm and excitement in its production of the much-loved musical Annie.

The group performed the story about little orphan Annie at Broadway Village Hall last weekend.

Director Jo Warren was full of praise for the young performers who took the show to their heart with its fantastic characters, memorable songs and heart-warming story.

"There is so much talent among the youth group," she said in the show programme.

"The numbers of children have grown over the past two years and it has been extremely rewarding to watch them all gain in confidence during this show."

"We now have a waiting list, so I'm delighted they have been given the opportunity to take the lead in this show and demonstrate their true potential."

"With valued support and guidance from adult members, the children have focused on characterisation, vocal skills and theatrical techniques, all helping them perform to a high standard and create great effects."

Poppy Lankaster took the lead role of Annie, while Jack Souster played the mega-rich Daddy Warbucks who gave her a new life away from the orphanage run by Miss Hannigan, played by Milly Whitefield.

There were some great performances all-round including the scheming Rooster (George Souster) and Lily St Regis (Lily Cumming).

With so many roles in the production of Annie many of the youth group had multiple parts including Callum Clark who played Bundles McCloskey the laundryman, radio singing man Bert Healey and also one of the orphans.

Director Jo Warren added: "The children have been a pleasure to work with, listening and wholeheartedly acting upon advice given. They are all fantastic."

Stars of the show were the orphans and the audience loved their rendition of It's a Hard Knock Life, while Easy Street performed by Miss Hannigan, Rooster and Lily St Regis was another memorable highlight.

Rural crime in area drops by 16 per cent

NEW figures for rural crime reports show a per cent reduction across the Avon and Somerset area.

Police began a new method of assessing the impact of rural crime in February this year by recording the number of crimes against businesses or properties which rely on the land for a living.

Initiatives they have used to tackle rural crime in that time have been the Horse and Farn Watch schemes, operations against burglaries and the training of even more officers and PCSOs in countryside crimes such as poaching.

Sergeant Stuart Williams of the Rural Crime Team said: "Naturally we're very pleased about these figures, but we can't be complacent whilst there are new victims and new offences every day."

"Nationally and regionally there is plenty of determination and energy going into fighting rural crime which means that sharing resources and ideas is better than it ever has been."

The Police and Crime Commissioner for Avon and Somerset is a member of the National Rural Crime Network of about 20 forces, and locally the force is a member of a regional group as well as organising a forum.

Its members include the Exmoor National Park Authority, NFU, South West Business Forum, Environment Agency, Country Landowners' Association and Trading Standards officers.

The number of rural crimes recorded from February 1st 2014 to April 30th 2014 was 223. This compares to 187 in the corresponding months this year.

Across all the rural beats within Avon and Somerset in those same periods there was a 5.4 per cent reduction of recorded crime; from 6,663 to 6,301.

Local ladies have fun with flowers

■ FLORAL CREATIONS: Ladies in Combe St Nicholas Village Hall with their floral arrangements
Photos by JACKIE NICHOLLS

FLOWER arranging workshops held near Chard have been a hit with local ladies.

Armed with their fresh flowers, greenery and tons of enthusiasm, the class watched a step-by-step demonstration at Combe St Nicholas Village Hall showing them how to make a simple, but modern floral design.

They then rolled up their sleeves and with help, each produced a mini-masterpiece to take home and show off.

One of the attendees, Jenny Wheadon, said: "I came with my daughter Claire and really enjoyed myself. I was a bit wary having not done anything like this before and concerned because I'm not arty or creative at all.

"However - I impressed myself and was absolutely delighted with what I made! Everyone was very friendly; everything was easy to follow, even for a complete beginner. I'm definitely coming again, it was great."

Jackie Nicholls, from Ashville Design, who runs the workshops, said: "It was an absolute pleasure to teach everybody, we had so much fun together. I was really impressed with the designs produced. Considering the ladies had little or no experience, the results were amazing. I'm really looking forward to the next one!"

For more details visit the website www.ashvilledesign.co.uk or call Jackie on 07906 259 683.

Tatworth student heading to US

AN Axe Valley Community College student from Tatworth passed the last hurdle to secure a spell at Yale University, USA.

Year 12 student Matthew Mortimer is one of only 150 applicants out of 3,700-plus to win a place on the USA Sutton Trust Programme. The programme gives "bright, state school students" a taste of life at an American university. It is delivered in partnership with the US-UK Fulbright Commission, and is centred on a one-week summer school in the US.

Mathew said: "I am extremely happy to have progressed onto the USA Sutton Trust programme. I felt confident after my selection weekend at the London School of Economics, but am still shocked that my place has been confirmed.

"I am very excited to spend a week at Ivy League university Yale in New Haven, Connecticut, which is ranked inside the world's top ten.

"My trip commences on the August 5th, and I am looking forward to representing my school and the South West, experiencing the culture and education system of a country that I have never had the opportunity to visit.

"In the future I hope I can progress on the programme and receive a scholarship to an American university of my choice."

Matthew's of sixth form at the Axminster college, Rupert Carr (pictured above with the student), said: "We are delighted that Matthew has secured this prestigious place in the face of huge competition. He is a fantastic representative of the college and we are sure he will make the most of this opportunity."

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Reducing stress workshops in Bridport

MINDFUL RESOLUTIONS | Stress is one of the biggest causes of work absence in the UK with 15.2 million working days lost in 2013, and an annual cost to employers of £26 billion.

Stress causes damage to business as work performance suffers and productivity and efficiency are inevitably reduced.

It's not good for the individual or the organisation, but there is help available. Mindful Resolutions is a local company supporting a range of organisations in reducing stress in their workforce.

The two company directors - Debbie Boyes and Lucy Watkinson, pictured above - are not only highly experienced mental health nurses but also business owners and employers.

They understand that a business has needs too and that cost management is critical to the health of any business - big or small.

Lucy and Debbie also offer individual training and therapy (including CBT and Mindfulness training) and are running an eight week workshop course in stress Reduction in Bridport starting on May 21st. More details, including how to contact Debbie and Lucy, can be at www.mindfulresolutions.co.uk and www.growagain.co.uk

New dance troupe's a thriller!

HOLYROOD Academy's first-ever dance troupe competed at the Somerset Activity and Sports Partnership School Games held at Millfield School. This newly-formed team at the Chard academy was encouraged by Richard Evans, the sports development manager at Holyrood. He wanted to help Holyrood's keen dancers to excel and showcase their talent to the county. They performed a modern take on Michael Jackson's Thriller, enticing audiences to reminisce with their costumes and classic moves. The girls were choreographed by Miss Kelly from the Kelly Leigh School of Dance, who often supports the academy at community events. Mr Evans is hoping the troupe will continue to participate in other similar events, gaining further experience and thus developing an enviable reputation for the academy's dancers.

Holyrood's sporting stars' success representing county

HOLYROOD Academy students Kitty Wells and Ben Fenton from Chard have represented Somerset in sporting success.

Kitty Wells (pictured below right) has played football for Somerset for the past six years, training weekly with other squad members from schools across Somerset.

In her position as centre-forward for the U16 team, she has made a fantastic contribution throughout the season, scoring two goals against Hampshire in the South West Counties Final which helped take her team to regional success.

The Somerset U16 Girls footballers are now recognised as champions of the South West and Holyrood is delighted to commend Kitty on her part in their achievement.

Ben Fenton (pictured right) was recently selected to represent Somerset in the Developing Player Pathway, held in conjunction with Bath Rugby.

Ben was selected from over 100 school players to play in the final 15 at Bath Rugby's Recreation Ground, so Holyrood is extremely proud that his potential was noticed and wishes him well in his desire to make it to the England squad one day.

Holyrood principal Martin Brook said: "These students are an absolute credit to the academy and I congratulate them on their personal achievements. Well done!"

Schoolchildren in tennis competition

CHILDREN from primary schools in the Chard area took part in a tennis competition organised by Holyrood Academy.

It was organised in conjunction with Chard Tennis Club and saw teams of two boys and two girls compete in singles and doubles matches.

This year's winners were Buckland St Mary Primary School and they will now represent the Chard area at the South Somerset Finals on June 25th at Martock Tennis Club.

Holyrood Academy sports co-ordinator, Jason Hedaux, would like to thank Chard Tennis Club and Sally Freeman for hosting the event.

"Events like this, which build on and develop skills learnt in schools, contribute towards the government's agenda for greater competition within and amongst schools," he said.

Charity football day raises £1,200 in memory of Bradley

ILMINSTER Town Football Club, its friends and supporters got together to raise £1,200 for Action Duchenne.

Action Duchenne supports those affected by Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, and the sum was raised during the club's second charity football day.

The event was started last year by the under 16 youth side as many of the players grew up with Bradley Cullen, a popular local lad who suffered from the disease.

When he passed away suddenly in 2013, aged 15, his friends wanted to do something proactive and organised the first match with the help of a few mums and their team coaches.

This year's event saw a string of football matches on the Recreation Ground on Sunday, May 3rd. The main match was the Bradley Cullen Memorial Match, which saw the under 16s take on a team of Ilminster Town Football Club managers. The under 16s only just beat the managers' and took the trophy, which was donated by the Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Emma Jane Taylor.

Local band A Night With Lions played throughout the afternoon and into the evening, and a number of local businesses and residents donated prizes for the raffle. There was also a hog roast funded by Ilminster Youth and Ilminster Town Football Club so that all profits could be donated to the charity.

Football club chairman Darren Manley said: "I think everyone who was on the rec on Sunday will agree there was a great atmosphere, the club has been blown away by the support it has received and I am chuffed and amazed to say we have raised £1,200 for Action Duchenne.

"Thank you to everyone who helped put the day on and/or donated money."

Mark Cullen, Bradley's father, added: "A fantastic amount of money raised and a massive thank you to everyone involved, and a big thank you to Ilminster Town Football Club for holding the match and for the people of Ilminster for keeping Brad's memory going - I can't thank you all enough."

Brad's friends jointly said: "We all still miss Brad, this event is our way of remembering his life with the sport he loved."

The club would like to thank Cottage Flowers, Frame of Mind, The Spar, Hannah May Hair Studio, Silver Street Dairy, Labels For Less, Hair & Beauty, Minster Vets, Debbie Lee, Hamilton Davis Belts, Harrimans, The Royal Oak and all friends and family who donated raffle prizes. Barrington football team sent a £100 collection and the Ilminster players on the day donated £153.80.

Town council's finances available for inspection

ILMINSTER Town Council's annual rand relating documents is currently available for residents to inspect or make copies of.

The documents will be available on certain days for certain hours up to and including Friday, June 5th.

Each year the town council's annual return is audited by an external auditor appointed by the Audit Commission.

Ilminster town clerk Joy Norris said in a statement: "Any person interested has the opportunity to inspect and make copies of the annual return and all books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers and receipts et cetera relating to them.

"Local government electors and their representatives also have rights to question the auditor about the accounts and object to the accounts or any item in them.

"Written notice of an objection must first be given to the auditor and a copy sent to the town council." More information is available from Ilminster Town Council.

Lions Club host charity dog jamboree

FOUR-LEGGED friends of all shapes and sizes were at the Dillington Estate on Sunday for Ilminster Lions Club's charity dog jamboree. There was a great turnout from dog owners and their animals for the event which included a host of different classes and sections. There were also a number of other attractions and demonstrations, with all proceeds raised from the event going to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and the Beacon Centre at Musgrove Park Hospital in Taunton. Gemini Carnival Club members were on hand to supply a barbecue and a cream tea, while among the visitors to the show was the outgoing Mayor of Ilminster, Emma Jane Taylor.

Man suffers minor injuries after being trapped under tractor

A MAN suffered what was described as "minor" injuries when trapped under a tractor in Ilminster. Emergency services were called to Station Road at about 8.25pm on Friday, May 8th. A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "A male had become trapped under a tractor that had rolled over. Firefighting appliances from Ilminster, Chard and the rescue tender from Taunton were mobilised. On arrival of the first crew, crews managed to release the male by lifting the tractor. The male received minor injuries to his leg and was left in the care of ambulance service."

■ INSPIRATION: Children from Greenfylde First School with artist Diane Burnell and, below, being presented with some original artwork

Children work with local artist

CHILDREN from Greenfylde First School recently had the opportunity to visit Ilminster Arts Centre at The Meeting House to work with Diane Burnell, an artist who has previously been in school working with pupils.

Diane has had a great artistic influence on the children, especially in her creative use of paints to create her work.

Speaking of her work, she said: "Fascinated by the transient and fluid nature of the world, I attempt to capture movement and energy through a direct and exhilarating union between myself, oil paint and canvas."

The children's work inspired by Diane is currently on display in the school hall, library and in classrooms and will form part of Greenfylde's exhibition at the Arts Centre in June.

During their visit with Diane, she also kindly offered display some of the children's work with her own at an exhibition in Taunton Library in July called "Cre8".

The class were also delighted to be given one of Diane's original art works for the school.

A school spokesperson said: "This was amazing gesture that we thank Diane for this and for her kindness in selecting one of her paintings that the children had told her on a previous visit that they like."

"We are sure she will continue to be an inspiration for our children's artistic talents for quite a while."

■ GREENFYLDE First School in Ilminster hosted football teams from Hambridge, Shepton Beauchamp and Norton primary schools to take part in a football festival. Organised by Bob Brunt, Greenfylde's school sports coach, the festival allowed the young players to take part in matches against other schools to develop not only their football skills, but also the importance of team work and fair play. The afternoon was a success for all and Greenfylde's thanks go to all the schools who came and the adults who volunteered to referee and support the players.

Not only do I now have a complete smile but importantly for me, I am able to enjoy foods which had become difficult to eat.

Charity shop volunteers needed

FERNE Animal Sanctuary is making an urgent appeal for retail shop volunteers.

Volunteers are seeking volunteers for many different tasks, but the most pressing one is to find people to man the shops. The charity now has three shops – in Chard, Bridport and Langport.

Volunteer co-ordinator Amanda Thorntorn said: "Ferne Animal Sanctuary relies on our dedicated team of volunteers, without whom we would not be able to care for the unwanted animals that find themselves here. We urgently need volunteers in all areas of the sanctuary, especially in our charity shops based in Chard, Langport and Bridport.

"If you can spare a few hours a week and would like to be part of a friendly team we would be delighted to hear from you.

"We also need volunteers at the sanctuary, at Wambrook near Chard, to help in our new rehoming centre reception, the café and the finance department. In addition, we need help at all our events, particularly our community dog shows.

"Volunteering can be a very rewarding, worthwhile experience so please do contact me on 01460 65214 or email volunteering@ferneanimal-sanctuary.org.

"You don't need have any previous experience – just a friendly personality with a passion for animal welfare."

Crews fight Martock chimney fire

FIREFIGHTERS from two stations attended a chimney fire in Martock in the evening of Monday, May 4th.

The alarm was raised just before 7.30pm and one appliance was sent to a property in Church Street, Martock. A chimney fire was confirmed, and a second unit was requested, also from Martock.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews were using chimney gear from the grate to extinguish the fire but were unable to reach the top of the chimney, so an aerial ladder platform from Yeovil was requested to attend.

"The fire was fully extinguished and duty of care was left with the occupiers."

Pre-school celebrates Ofsted result

■ MISTERTON Pre-School, near Crewkerne, has been deemed "good" overall by Ofsted, the second highest grade possible. The pre-school is celebrating the result after the previous inspection stated "requires improvement". Part of the new report said: "Staff provide a good range of activities to promote children's learning and development across all areas. Children have access to a good range of toys and resources that help them develop independence. There is a safe and welcoming environment, including a new outside space that is well-managed and resourced. Children share close and warm relationships with the staff, which supports their emotional and physical well-being successfully."

Tennis clubs open doors for free taster sessions

WITH tennis fever set to grip the nation during the summer, tennis clubs across South Somerset and Yeovil Recreation Centre are opening their doors over three weekends and offering free tennis taster sessions.

Free tennis will be available on May 16th and 17th, June 13th and 14th and August 1st and 2nd. The initiative by the Lawn Tennis Association is part of the Great British Tennis Weekend, which will see over 1,500 park sites and tennis clubs across the country open up for free.

Jake Hannis, senior sports and healthy lifestyles officer at South Somerset District Council, said: "Wimbledon always sees interest in tennis soar and we want to offer everyone an opportunity to try the sport free of charge in a welcoming environment.

"It's easy to take part, just visit the Great British Tennis Weekend website, choose a location and day near you and then book a slot. Clubs and facilities will provide all the equipment and absolutely anyone can get involved."

Yeovil Recreation Centre, Yeovil, Queen Camel, Ilminster and Somerton Tennis Clubs have currently signed up and will host free court sessions, coaching, mini tennis, cardio tennis and family events to encourage more people, of all ages, playing the game.

As there are limited spaces available advanced booking is recommended at the website www.greatbritishtennisweekend.com

James Deem, regional participation manager at the Lawn Tennis Association, added: "We have an excellent South Somerset Tennis Development Group which is working closely with the tennis clubs across South Somerset to help co-ordinate these weekends.

"You may never have picked up a racket in your life or perhaps your child is looking to try a new sport. All ability levels are welcome."

■ SUPPORT FOR NEPAL: Ilminster Rotarians hold a street collection for Water Survival Box while, below, Crewkerne Distric Rotarians join a collection in Yeovil

Rotarians support earthquake victims

ROTARY Clubs across the district have been out in force over the past week, collecting funds to help victims of the recent Nepal earthquake.

In Ilminster, club members raised funds for the Somerset-based Rotary charity Water Survival Box, which sends boxes containing a water filter and pump and other essential items to disaster zones around the world. The equipment will provide a family with 18,000 litres of safe drinking water, enough for a whole year.

A total of £499.75 was collected which with Gift Aid was boosted to £571, almost enough to buy four boxes, priced at £150 each, to send to Nepal, which was hit by the devastating 7.8 magnitude earthquake on April 25th.

The Rotary Club of Crewkerne and Rotary Club of Crewkerne District teamed up to raise funds to give to Cornwall-based ShelterBox, which provides emergency shelter and vital equipment to disaster areas. A street collection over the May Day Bank Holiday raised £2,000.

In addition, the Rotary Club of Crewkerne District had already sent funds off for two ShelterBoxes and two Water Survival Boxes. Members also travelled to Yeovil to help with a collection organised by the Yeovil and Yeo Vale clubs, raising a further £1,923 for ShelterBox.

Members of the Rotary Club of Chard held a collection at Tesco, raising £620, which they added to £850 already received in donations plus a matching district, making a grand total of £2,000 to be divided between Water Aid and ShelterBox.

■ THE Rotary Club of Chard has also recently been fundraising for local causes. A beer festival at Chard Football Club raised £1,400 for equine therapy charity Horseshoes and Handprints and Tatworth Pre-School. A spokesperson for the club said: "A very successful and profitable weekend for which the club is grateful to all sponsors, helpers and all who assisted in any way."

Publishers of the Pulman's View From newspapers are continuing their two-year campaign for Water Survival Box, which has topped £10,000. For details on how to donate, call James Coles on 01297 446155.

Choir workshop at Chard church

CHOIRS from Somerset and surrounding counties are invited to join a one-day workshop at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Chard on Saturday, May 16th.

World-renowned organist Philip Scriven is returning to the church where, as a small boy, his love of music began when he joined the church choir. Today, Philip is a highly respected choral, orchestral and operatic conductor. He has worked at Westminster Abbey, St George's Chapel, and St John's College Cambridge to name just a few.

The Church of The Good Shepherd publicity officer, Hilary Cumming, said: "For anyone who would like to join all those who have already signed up, to take part to study and enjoy Philip's musical direction, there are still places available."

"The day starts at 10am with registration. This will be followed by two hours of rehearsals, a lunch break, more rehearsals from 2.15pm and then a tea break at 4.15pm."

"At 5pm, the combined choir will give a performance, and admission is free for those who wish to attend this unique event."

"Anyone wishing to join this very special day, must be able to read music. Compositions by George Handel, Anton Bruckner and John Rutter will be rehearsed and then performed before the audience."

HAZELWELL Lodge is a 35 bed Care Home for the elderly situated in Parish town Ilminster in South West Somerset. Miss Edna Maxwin took over the running in 1987, for people with Old age and dementia. Her aim was to change people's perception of care homes and how people view their autumn years. We are now a 35 bed home specialising in care for those who suffer from dementia and associated behavioural issues that may cause challenges in an unsupervised setting. The operation of the home is designed to enable such residents to resume a more appropriate and desirable way of living that deals with their individual needs on a personal level. We provide safe environments that are adapted to the unique needs of the resident so that they can enjoy as much independence, mental and physical stimulation as possible. Miss Maxwin has now been joined in the ownership of the home by her son Chris Ochoa. With the support and interaction of local authorities, NHS and Healthcare professionals it is clear to see that Perceptions HAVE changed and Hazelwell Lodge holds an important and respected position in the local community.

Koppers

Axminster care home win award for being rated in the top twenty in the South West for the second year running.

TWICE voted in the top 20 of the Care Home Awards, beating 2370 other homes in the area, The Koppers is a warm, welcoming and friendly residential home specializing in the care of people with dementia.

Nestled in tranquil settings in the heart of the picturesque village of Kilminster, The Koppers provided the highest level of care for elderly people, comfortable accommodation with beautiful views, excellent facilities and expertly trained staff.

"We provide a friendly, comfortable home for the confused retired. We aim to promote independence, privacy and dignity within a therapeutic and caring environment"

The owners of the Koppers are constantly striving to provide residents with the highest quality care, providing dedicated and compassionate staff experienced in the care of elderly people with complex care needs, long standing mental health problems and severe communication disabilities.

"We pride ourselves on providing excellent care for our residents. To receive the award is a wonderful, wonderful achievement and it's great to have received such recognition two years running" owner Vivian comments.

"There is just a negative representation of residential homes in the news at the moment but we are a small home that takes pride in offering the best care and a happy, home from home environment and it's nice to have the award to validate that."

We are planning a summer event in July, to celebrate our award with residents, their families, friends and local community.

The Manor House Care Home

THE Manor House Care Home is run as a small family home with the emphasis on the provision of quality individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment. The organisation and management of the home are the means to achieve that end.

Dr. S.H. and Mrs. S.E.C. Curry have owned, managed and resided at The Manor House since April 1996.

Dr. Curry is a chartered psychologist with many years experience dealing with the rehabilitation of brain-injured individuals, whilst Mrs. Curry is an RGN with many years of specialist practice. Her experiences as ward Sister have been invaluable training in the management of staff and resources.

The Manor Houses latest Care Quality Commission inspection report was rated as a 3 Star or Excellent Care Service. The Manor House is a private residential care home which strives to provide the highest standard of care and permanent accommodation for 15 elderly individuals.

At The Manor House it is their aim to provide individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment where residents' individuality, privacy, dignity and freedom are respected.

At any point in time The Manor House will have between 14 and 18 members of staff additional to the proprietors. The proprietors fully recognize the crucial role that staff play in the welfare of the residents and therefore have had a long-standing commitment to continuous staff development and training. This is evidenced by the high level of staff qualification.

Please visit our website, where you will find all the information you need to determine if our home would be suitable for you or your relative. However; if you feel you need any additional information about any aspect of life in our home, please feel free to contact us at any time.

If you are able, we would like you to visit so we can show you what our home has to offer you or your relative.

Car rolls over in Tatworth

ONE car left the road and rolled over on the A38 at Tatworth, near Chard, on Monday, May 4th. The accident happened at about 9.35pm and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Upon arrival, crews found one vehicle which had left the highway and rolled over. Crews found two walking wounded casualties." The casualties were treated by ambulance service personnel."

Carnival club summer sale

CHARD-based ZEM Carnival Club is to hold its annual summer sale on Saturday, May 16th. Household goods, bric-a-brac, clothes, books, toys, CD and DVDs and more will be sold from 9am to 1pm at Secret Garden Cafe, Holyrood Street, Chard. Donations are also being accepted, please contact Kaye or Simon on 01460 62842 for more information.

Camera club lighting workshop

CHARD Camera Club will be holding a studio lighting workshop with model, led by member Charlotte Nadin, at its base in the Baptist Church Hall at 7.30pm on Thursday, June 4th (camera and tripods required). Enquiries about the event should be made to Peter Partridge on 01460 66885 or www.chardcameraclub.org.uk

Local brews at cider festival

A NUMBER of local brands will be available for sampling at Crewkerne's cider festival on Sunday, May 24th.

The festival will be held in George Reynolds Centre from 12noon until 11pm. The Twerzels will entertain with live music, and more information about the festival is available on 01460 73972.

Village to host fourth Folk Fest

THE fourth Petherton Folk Fest will be held in South Petherton on Saturday, June 20th, offering a full day of entertainment for all ages.

Almost all the performers - from morris troupes and dancers to musicians - come from the Somerset or West Country area, and local food and crafts will also be on offer at a festival market.

The festiva will start at 10am with a procession of morris sides into Market Square. At the same time, events will be getting underway in most of the other venues, which include St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall, The Brewer's Arms pub, The Blake Hall, the yard at Souht Petherton Infants School and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane.

Also from 12noon, fans of folk music will be able to enjoy about 20 music gigs in different locations - including Willowen, the quirky indie-folk trio from Bournemouth, who are making their third appearance at Petherton Folk Fest with a performance at The David Hall.

Highlights of the event for folk music fans will be the headline performance in Market Square at 6pm by The Drystones - a duo who wowed crowds at the Glastonbury Festival in 2013 - and headlining in The David Hall, Australian Rory Ellis, billed as the "quintessential alternative country artiste".

The Afro-fusion band, Freshlyground, whose musical style blends elements of traditional South African music with blues, jazz and indie-rock, is scheduled to perform in the church, as is Stanches-ter Quire.

Refreshments will be available in the church all day and, at 12noon, visitors will be invited to join in the traditional Clipping of the Church, which has been a popular feature of Petherton Folk Fest in previous years.

Events for children are being organised at several venues, starting at 11am with a morris dance workshop in the infants school yard. Many other attractions for youngsters will be located in the church grounds and Angel Heart Theatre is giving puppet performances to "kids of all ages" in The Blake Hall.

A Laughter Workshop, for children and adults, will be held in the back garden at Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane, from 11am to 11.45am. There will also be arts and crafts for children from 11am till 2pm, Punch & Judy at 12.30, and a puppet show from 3pm to 4pm.

Chairman of the festival committee, Pete Wheeler, said: "We have aimed to provide an even more extensive programme for all ages for the fourth Petherton Folk Fest and I feel confident that the events we have booked will keep visitors happily occupied throughout the day.

"We look forward to seeing our regular supporters and, all being well, an increased number of traditional dance and music fans from further afield.

The full programme for the day is on the website www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

Parade to commemorate end of war

PLATOONS from HMS Heron based at RNAS Yeovilton will march through the streets of Yeovil during the morning of Wednesday, June 3rd with colours flying and bayonets fixed.

They will be led by the Queen's Colours and the Band of the Royal Marines with the parade being held to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

The parade is being organised by Yeovil Town

Council with the help of RNAS Yeovilton and Avon and Somerset Constabulary.

The event, which also marks the 75th anniversary of the commissioning of the Air Station, has been timed to take place between VE Day and VJ Day, and will include a fly-past.

Details of the timing of the parade and the route will be released over the coming weeks.

New worshipful master for Freemasons

THE 133rd annual installation meeting of the Prudence and Industry Freemasons Lodge no. 1953 took place at Chard Masonic Hall on Wednesday.

Michael Cross was installed as the new worshipful master by retiring master Kevin Douglas in the presence of the assistant provincial grand master, David Maso, and upwards of 70 members and guests.

Clive Sanders was appointed senior warden and Martin Millward junior warden.

After the meeting, an excellent dinner was provided by the Phoenix Hotel. It was announced that nationally Freemasonry had donated £50,000 to the Nepalese earthquake appeal and that Mark Masonry had subscribed £30,000 for ShelterBox.

Opening times Monday to Friday
9.15am until 3.15pm
Term time only | Fees £3.30 per hour

We take 2gether funding and 3 & 4 year old funding
Contact number 01404 891622

Our purpose built building has a large enclosed outside area

Our aims are, To enhance the development and education of children under statutory school age in a parent-involving, community based group.
To provide a safe, secure and stimulating environment.

To work within a framework that ensures equality of opportunity for all children and families.

DUNKESWELL Pre-school is a voluntary run community based Pre School; it was established at Culme Way in September 1993 and has gone from strength to strength ever since. The purpose built building is courtesy of Westward Investment Management Services and offers facilities for children from two years old.

We have an enclosed outside area, which recently saw the addition of a 'Mud Kitchen' this section of the play area was developed and built by SW Highways as part of their community day. Local businesses also contributed and the shelter was created from natural materials and resembles a woodland hut. The children love playing together in the Mud Kitchen and Helen would like to thank everyone in the local community for their continued support throughout the years.

Our most recent Ofsted report (May 2011) found the setting "outstanding" in every category of the inspection.

Comments from the report included: "Diligent staff provide children with rich, varied and imaginative experiences which provide a broad and balanced curriculum."

"The dedicated staff and hands-on committee work exceptionally well to ensure outcomes for children are outstanding."

"Children's behavior is exemplary."

Six members of staff work at the Pre School and 23 children per session are cared for, there are currently 46 children on the books from ages two to five.

J & T Hardware

JASON and Tina Page opened their hardware store to meet the needs of the local people. They try to cater for all their DIY and Gardening needs and are always willing to source a product they do not stock. Jason's main business is wholesale kindling but he noticed a hole in the market for hardware in Dunkeswell. On visiting the store customers see the timber side of the business and ask for particular items so Jason has now started making garden furniture, planters and trellis to the customers own measurements. With the summer on it's way they are now selling bedding plants, trees, vegetable and various other plants as well as composts and garden products. David Lloyd Cabinet Maker

MY NAME is David Lloyd. After training at Rycotewood College in Thame, Oxfordshire, during 1994-95 I worked for small firms until I decided to start my own business.

I have been an independent cabinet maker and joiner since 2003.

From my Dunkeswell workshop, within the beautiful Blackdown Hills, I deliver mainly to Devon, Somerset and Dorset, but can deliver further a field if required.

What do I make? Well, almost anything in wood!

I make free standing and fitted furniture for kitchens, dining rooms, living rooms, bedrooms, studies, bathrooms and even the garden!

Designs are agreed with the client after discussing needs, specifications and any foibles or special features they may require.

Bespoke furniture making permits freedom of design and choice of material to suit all tastes and budgets.

I also undertake bespoke joinery commissions if you need something a little different. Awkward, odd sized or listed building compliant internal / external doors, staircases and windows etc...

I am passionate about using English timber for my commissions as I believe it has more character. However I will use solid timber from overseas if the job requires it or you would like to use it, for example, using American Black Walnut for kitchen worktops or African Sapele for doors.

I would be happy to see you at my workshop to discuss a future project or to just chat about wood. If you are thinking of visiting my workshop, please ring first to make sure I am available.

Please see my extensive portfolio online; www.davidrloyd.co.uk, give me a ring 01404 891800 or email info@davidrloyd.co.uk

TIMBER GARDEN BUILDINGS DON'T HAVE TO BE ONE TRICK PONIES

GARDENS provide that little bit of serenity needed in this stressful modern age and at Inside Out Buildings they aim to utilise this outdoor space by creating unique, adaptable and fully functional timber buildings that can always be used whatever the weather in the ever varying British climate. Alexander and Simon are truly passionate about providing good quality buildings that enrich the lives of their customers – they create a building that conforms to the needs of your family, rather than provide a building to which you must adapt. This even applies to moving house, should you move, the structure can move with you. If you sketch your ideal building they'll do their best to make it a reality!

Whatever the needs or budget of the customer, Inside Out Buildings cater to all from standard sheds to bespoke out buildings. They also have an undercover display area so no matter what the weather you can take your time to choose the timber building that is right for you!

Inside Out Building's ethos is simple – providing quality timber products at an affordable price. They are committed to delivering a service, contact them between 8am – 6pm and they'll be happy to give you advice on any timber related matters! They also offer a free consultation and site survey within a 20 mile radius of their premises, as well as a full installation service. So why not stop by, they are open 8am – 5:30pm Weekdays, Saturday 9am – 12:30pm and Sundays by appointment only.

First 4 Offroad Vehicle Equipment

Supplying Land Rover parts and accessories for almost 9 years.

FIRST Four OffRoad have been supplying Land Rover parts and accessories from their base on the Flightway Business Park at Dunkeswell for almost 9 years.

The business was started in 2001 by Peter & Rose Lamb, originally near Tiverton. After quickly outgrowing original premises they re-located to the current modern unit on Flightway.

Although the business is primarily mail order, and orders received through the First Four website leave for both national and international destinations daily, they have also developed a strong local trade and private customer base, which provides a useful local service for Land Rover owners in the East Devon, Somerset and West Dorset areas. Whether you Land Rover just needs a new exhaust or one of their more specialist products such as a hydraulic winch system, First Four can help.

"Basically, if it fits a Land Rover First Four either have it or can supply it", says Director Peter Lamb. In addition to the large range of parts and accessories held in stock they have the supplier network to provide a 24 hour service for less common parts.

A feature when dealing with First Four is good experienced-based advice gained through nearly 30 years of experience using, maintaining and re-building Land Rovers of all types.

In addition to the range of Land Rover consumable parts, First Four have their own range of in-house designed accessories. This range includes replacement bumpers vehicle protection and expedition equipment. Built locally, this range has proved popular over the years and is supplied around the world. It is also popular in the UK with public utilities, emergency services and private individuals who use their vehicle for a wide range of tasks, from heavy towing to forestry and agricultural work.

Pace Fuelcare

PACE Fuelcare supplies heating oil, high quality fuels and lubricants to domestic, agricultural and commercial customers throughout the Midlands and Southern England.

Whatever you are looking for from your heating oil supplier, Pace Fuelcare has an outstanding service to suit your domestic needs.

Product wise, you can choose from our high quality kerosene or gas oil. We also provide premium kerosene which is particularly popular with customers who run an oil fired cooker/stove (e.g. Aga or Rayburn), as it is cleaner burning and so makes your system more efficient and less likely to breakdown.

When you are running a farm, you know there are many times in the year when being without fuel would simply be unthinkable.

We understand that while our prices are important to you, our delivery service is essential.

To give you an outstanding delivery service, Pace Fuelcare has strategically placed depots across the region. With a deep knowledge and understanding of the heating oil market in the region, Pace Fuelcare offers area-specific knowledge, staff and depots. This is supported by a national infrastructure through its parent company, Certas Energy, one of the leading fuel distributors in the country.

At Pace Fuelcare we are proud to employ local staff and drivers, who are committed to giving you the professional support you expect and deserve; that's why many of our customers have been with us for over twenty years!

If you need any help or advice, just call the friendly staff at the Honiton Depot on tel: 01404 891130.

For Sector Lane... read Chard Road

AXMINSTER Town FC turned their pitch in Sector Lane into an iconic venue for local football, playing hosts to many memorable sporting occasions.

And now, after years of planning, the Tigers are about to do the same. This time they have a magnificent £1 million plus new ground at Chard Road which boasts some of the finest football facilities in Devon.

The once mighty Tigers are set to roar again as the club stages its first official match at the new facilities - the Axminster Hospital Cup final on Friday, May 22nd between their own 1st team and a Chard Town X1 (kick-off 7.30 pm).

It is fitting that such an important fixture in the football calendar should be scheduled for the first senior game at Chard Road and a huge crowd is expected.

Youngsters have already played on one of the two pitches in a junior tournament last Saturday which was watched by more than 200 parents and supporters.

Ray Self, the club chairman who has pioneered the move from Sector Lane (now a housing estate) to Chard Road, said it was "wonderful" to see so many people at the new ground.

"It was fitting that youngsters were playing at the new ground for the first time.

Next year we will be running and under 9, under 13 and Under 18 teams. We have some very talented youth coming through at that augers well for the future of Axminster Town FC at Chard Road."

Mr Self continued: "It has been a long wait to get our new facilities but it was all worthwhile when I saw such a big crowd watching the youngsters play."

Mr Self is anxious to involve as many sectors of the community in the club and over the next couple of weeks will be throwing open the doors of the Chard Road complex so the people of Axminster can see what fantastic facilities they have.

This coming Saturday the club will be holding an open day from 2 pm for members to be followed by an invitation for members of the business community to view the social facilities between 9.30 am and 1 pm on Friday, May 22nd.

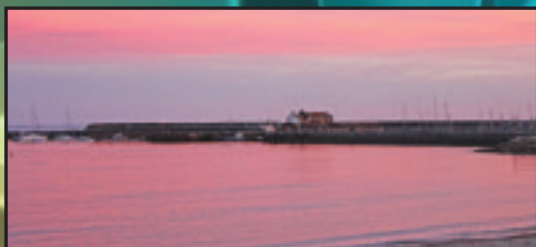

That same evening the club will host the Axminster Hospital Cup, the leading charitable tournament in the area which has raised thousands for Axminster Hospital over the years.

Finally, the public will be invited into the ground on Saturday, May 23rd, from 2 pm, to see the facilities.

As well as building their youth structure, the club is anxious to attract new players and they are also looking for a manager for their 1st team squad.

CELEBRATING 14 years of service to the people of Crewkerne and its visitors, Bilbys in Market Street is a friendly place to dine for breakfast, lunch or afternoon tea. Its central location and easy access makes it's a great meeting place for friends wanting a chat over a cuppa and perhaps a slice of delicious homemade cake or shortbread of which there is a wide range to choose from. Owned by husband and wife team Tris and Jane Pinkney and located in a listed building, formerly the Red Lion Hotel, Bilbys Crewkerne is run by Jane and retains many original features such as the fire place and decorative floor tiles, stained glass windows and ceramics in the porchway. There are also blow up photographs of historical views on the walls, daily newspapers and a noticeboard of local events, all adding to the atmosphere of your dining experience. The food at Bilbys is all made on the premises to a very high standard using the best ingredients, sourced locally. The cakes are made by Jane in Crewkerne, eat in or takeaway. There are no GM products and special dietary requirements can be accommodated, there are some gluten free items on the menu already. With a menu of full breakfasts, including optional black pudding, light bites such as toasted sandwiches and baguettes (the brie, cranberry and rocket special toastie was to die for), jacket potatoes with basic or more imaginative fillings such as garlic mushrooms or chick pea and coriander. Served with a side salad which includes delicious homemade coleslaw, they are a meal in themselves but there are also things like cauli cheese or smokies and casseroles as part of the main menu or on the daily special board. Cream teas with homemade scones or a slice of cake with cream or custard (the Battenburg was, light moist, not overly sweet and totally delicious) or perhaps an icecream sundae for the sweet tooth, all washed down with a wide selection of teas, (ceramic teapots that pour not dribble) milk shakes or soft drinks. Nothing on the menu is over £8 and they still work on a cash only basis to help keep the costs down. Bilbys has a five star hygiene rating. Half portions of all the food can be served for children (no chips there) and the wheel- friendly access, high chairs and toys all make it a family friendly environment. There is a separate dining room which can seat up to 24 and is often hired out for seminars, meetings or private parties. Opening hours are 9am-5pm Monday to Saturday. Jane and Tris would like to thank all their customers from the last 14 years and especially their excellent team of staff who work very hard to create a warm and friendly atmosphere.

The exciting news is that we have finally completed the refurbishment of our Crewkerne Surgery!

THE newly modernised surgery now has a much improved and enlarged animal treatment area, with two separate operating theatres, separate spacious cat and dog kennels, a dedicated recovery area within the main treatment area and an imaging suite with digital radiography and ultrasound. A separate room at the rear of the surgery houses our popular dog grooming service and there are separate kennels for the isolation of high risk cases. The newly completed reception, waiting and consulting area is now more spacious, with three consulting rooms and an airy and modern waiting room, with a separate retail area. The Crewkerne branch will serve as our main branch for the investigation and treatment of more complex cases, whilst our other three branches will continue the excellent consulting, operating and hospitalisation services which they already offer. As well as an opportunity to see behind the scenes at the surgery and to meet our staff, there will be lots of exciting things such as raffles, face painting, demonstrations, goody bags and refreshments, as well as exciting exhibitors. For further information, please pop in to the surgery and ask our staff.

A TASTE OF JAM-TASTIC JAZZ

ONE of the marvellous things about music is how varied and ever changing it is - there are so many different styles of music to enjoy.

Jazz is one genre but it alone embraces many different aspects from the early ragtime tunes immortalised by Scott Joplin to the ultra-cool bebop of Charlie Parker and John Coltrane. If you don't know about jazz but would like to find out more, where do you start?

Well, Ilminster Arts Centre is a good place - it stages regular jazz concerts, featuring performances in a wide variety of styles, as well as hosting "Jazz Jam Sessions" where musicians can get together and play music in an informal way.

Every so often the 'Jammers' put on a concert performance and showcase their talents to an audience. For those not familiar with jazz, these free concerts are a perfect way to find out a bit more about this style of music.

Many of the Jammers are highly competent professional musicians and their latest concert on Friday, May 22nd is an opportunity to hear five of them performing as The Duncan Anselm Quintet with Tony Roberts.

The Duncan Anselm Quintet plays mostly 'Blue Note' style jazz from the 50s and 60s. Duncan Anselm has been a fixture on the South West jazz scene for many years while Tony Roberts has worked with notable names such as John Dankworth, Humphrey Lytton and John McLaughlin (of Weather Report).

The Jazz Jam gigs are free but a donation to the Arts Centre would be appreciated. There are no suppers for this event, but there is a well-stocked bar!

Borealis at the Beehive

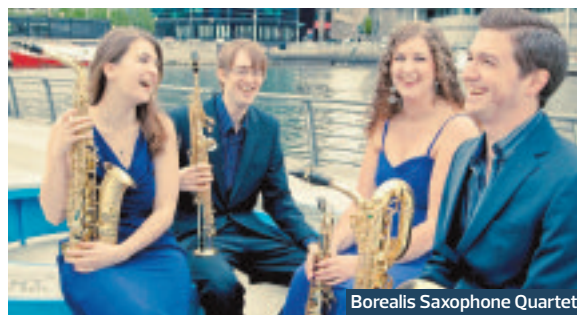

FOLLOWING on from an afternoon workshop, the Borealis Saxophone Quartet will be playing an exciting mixture of music as part of Honiton Festival. These include a Bulgarian Suite, which captures the essence of a traditional Bulgarian folk wedding, a commissioned work, The North, by Gary Carpenter, which was premiered last year in London, a brand new work receiving its World Premiere, Flights of Fancy by Devon composer Andrew Wilson. Also included is one of the world's first compositions for saxophone quartet Introduction and Scherzo by Frenchman Robert Clerisse. Rhapsody in Blue by George Gershwin, Samuel Barber's famous Adagio, Barbara Thompson's Celebration and with other works all mean there is something for everyone in this very wide-ranging programme. This is the Quartet's first visit to the South-West.

The Borealis Saxophone Quartet play at The Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, May 16th at 7.30pm. The Beehive's excellent bar will be available both before and after the concert and during the interval.

Tickets are £15 from www.beehivehoniton.co.uk and through 01404 384050 or in person, with Student tickets at the door only at £5.

Full details of the full Festival Programme are listed around the town and online at www.thehonitonfestival.co.uk

The History Boys at the Northcott

VOTED the nation's favourite play, Alan Bennett's multi-award-winning 'The History Boys' will return in 2015, visiting the Exeter Northcott Theatre in May as part of a major new UK tour for 2015.

Winner of over 30 major awards including the Olivier and Tony Awards for Best New Play, The History Boys is the story of a group of bright, funny and unruly sixth-formers in pursuit of sex, sport and a place at university. Their maverick English teacher is at odds with the young and shrewd supply teacher, whilst their headmaster is obsessed with results and league tables. Staffroom rivalry and the anarchy of adolescence overflow, provoking inconsistent questions about history and how you teach it. Their A Levels may be over, but their true education is only just beginning. Widely hailed as one of the greatest theatrical events of the last decade, The History Boys is a hilariously funny and exceptionally moving play about the true purpose of education.

The History Boys will be performed at Exeter Northcott

Theatre from Tuesday, May 26th to Saturday, May 30th.

Tickets are £29-£35, or £25-£29 for matinee performances. £2 off for concessions Tuesday-Thursday evenings and Saturday matinee.

Local Author Sara Perry supports Young Minds Charity

OVER the last year local resident and professional performer and psychic Sara Perry has been very busy.

Not only has she been presenting live on Psychic television and the radio but she has also found time to run her dance school, perform at the London Palladium with some of her students and now she has written and illustrated a children's book 'What if?'.

Inspired by former student George Werb the book aims to encourage the reader to open up the imagination and to use 'what if?' in an alternative, positive and appealing way. It also reminds us that the world is full of possibilities and how magical the mind can be.

Sara explains "We spend half our lives asking 'What if?' and often assume the worst". "It's easier to react in a pessimistic way because the brain is more alert to danger and so the question 'What if?' can often produce the most negative scenario in the mind". "What if things were not as they first seem? What if our dreams are real and the things we fear are actually blessings instead?"

Dedicated to George Werb and to all those individuals both children and adults alike who are ashamed or afraid of being themselves, who fear being different and standing out from the crowd. "Have the courage to shine brightly as it takes unusual perception to create genius".

All of the proceeds from the book are going to Young Minds the UK's leading mental health charity for young people.

Copies of 'What if?' can be purchased from the Owl and the Pyramid, Osborne's and Paper Chain in Seaton and Chocolat é Present in Colyton and Colyford Post Office.

During half term Sara will be doing an active story reading for primary school age at Seaton and Colyton Libraries on May 27th and 28th at 10am. Signed copies of What if? will be available to buy and Sara and the Well Mind team encourage everyone to come along.

24 hour charity tramathon at Seaton Tramway

A 24 HOUR Tramathon is taking place in Seaton this May to raise money for charity.

For 24 hours continuously, a special tram will depart Seaton Terminus at the top of the hour, every hour. It all kicks off at 1pm on Wednesday, May 27th and will continue through until the last departure at midday on Thursday, May 28th. The return journey takes just under one hour.

The Tramathon will raise money for four charities; Epilepsy Research UK, Cancer Research UK, Prostate Cancer UK and Marie Curie Cancer Care.

One of the co-organisers is Seaton Tramway Driver Dave Rawlings from Cotleigh. He says: "We want to offer something a little different for visitors to the Seaton Tramway. This is a one-off chance to enjoy the sunset or even the sunrise on a tram travelling along the River Axe. Perhaps you'll also get a glimpse at the stars if you join us overnight."

Tramway Inspector Gareth Richards from Seaton the other co-organiser of the event, says: "Throughout the evening, overnight, and for those early risers among us, the ticket price is £5 return. During normal tramway operating times standard fares will apply. A donation will also get you onto the Tramathon Special. All money raised will be equally split between the four charities. It's a really unique opportunity and we just hope people get on board with this very special charity event."

Dave and Gareth thank everyone for volunteering their services and especially Seaton Tramway for providing the trams to run this event.

Skydiving school wants record back

THE skydiving school based in Dunkeswell is again attempting to regain the Guinness World Record for the most tandem skydives completed in 24 hours at a single venue.

Jump day will be Saturday, June 20th, one of the longest days of the year.

This will be a big and exciting local event, benefiting loads of local and national charities.

Most people will be raising money for charities close to their heart.

The skydiving school believes hundreds of thousands of pounds will be raised. Most importantly though, this day will be all about breaking the world record and bringing it back to Dunkeswell, here in the UK.

The same skydiving school in Dunkeswell broke the world record in 2014 by completing 281 tandem skydives in 24 hours.

But this record was beaten later in the year by the Americans and is now 286.

"We have lots of support and the British seem to be very keen for any adrenaline sports, especially skydiving.

"We have no doubt we can get the world record back to the UK this year," said Jason Farrant, managing director of Skydive UK / Buzz in Dunkeswell.

The intended new record will be 333 and 300 people have already signed up.

Almost anyone can enter and do a tandem parachute jump as long as they are over the age of 16 (with parents consent). There is no upper age limit, however, over the age of 40, a medical form needs to be signed by a GP.

Skydive UK / Buzz is one of the biggest skydiving schools in the UK. Being located in Devon it has stunning views of three coastlines.

Last year the record in America was beaten from 12,000 feet.

Mr Farrant said: "We know that to beat the record we don't even need to go to 15,000 feet, but then we would feel like we are doing half the job.

"Our planes and pilots can take our skydivers to the maximum altitude of 15,000 feet, so why not?"

To register, please get in touch with Skydive UK/Buzz, by calling 01404 890 222 or visiting www.skydive.buzz

Wooldridge thrills again on Beer Wurlitzer

Michael Wooldridge

AFTER an outstanding show at Beer last year, Michael Wooldridge returned on Saturday, May 9th to once again delight an appreciative audience on the UK's oldest Wurlitzer. Michael Wooldridge is a highly-regarded theatre organist and Principal Tutor of the Rye Wurlitzer Academy. He told the audience about the talented youngsters, aged 8-18 whom he teaches at the Academy and who play on the Rye Wurlitzer which is the second oldest Wurlitzer in the UK and sister to that at Beer. It was good to hear about future generations of organists being nurtured at this unique establishment.

Michael treated the audience to a marvellous afternoon of music including wartime favourites, memories of Reg Dixon, a Buddy Holly medley, film and show tunes and the overture Poet and Peasant. It was also a pleasure for the audience to meet Richard Moore, who runs the Rye Academy, and Tony Wilson, a highly-regarded organist from Los Angeles who performs throughout North America and abroad. Tony, who plays in concert halls and other large venues, said he had never before experienced such a lovely show in the intimate setting of a small church or ever visited such a beautiful 'small town' as Beer.

Everyone is welcome at the next Wurlitzer show on Saturday, June 13th, at 2pm, when John Mann, the popular organist entertainer, returns. Shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ, admittance is £7 on the door which includes interval refreshments.

For further information please visit the website at www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk or phone 01297 24892.

Hospital League of Friends AGM

AXMINSTER Hospital League of Friends hereby give notice of their Annual General Meeting, to take place on Friday, June 12th at 6.30pm.

Cornish artists travel East to Somerset

CORNWALL has a special place in many people's hearts and a new exhibition of paintings, prints and photographs at Iminster Arts Centre by a group of Cornish artists, will surely stir happy memories of favourite holiday haunts.

The 10 artists are all members of Lizard Art, a co-operative of artists who are based on or near the Lizard Peninsula and whose work is inspired by the stunning coastal environment that surrounds them.

For 'Reflections of Cornwall', they are travelling east to Somerset, to share their creative responses to the UK's most south-westerly region, whose communities have a unique connection with the coast, its beaches, coves, rugged landscapes and ever changing skies.

This is the first time that the group has exhibited at the Arts Centre. 'Reflections of Cornwall' opens on Monday, May 18th and will feature a diverse collection of still-life subjects, botanical studies, landscapes, and botanical art in various media.

Lizard Art (www.lizardart.co.uk) was founded some 14 years ago and is based at the Stable Yard Gallery, Trelowarren Estate, Helston.

The 'Reflections of Cornwall' exhibition is open from Monday, May 18th to Saturday, May 30th at Iminster Arts Centre, 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am-2.30pm Saturdays. Admission is free.

Valuation Day at Iminster Arts Centre

IT'S TIME to search out that long forgotten treasure that may be lurking in your attic, garage or shed - or perhaps even sitting in plain view on the mantelpiece.

Iminster Arts Centre is hosting a special valuation day on Thursday, May 14th where members of the public can bring along their treasured items for a professional evaluation, courtesy of experts from Beames, Hampton and Littlewood of Exeter. The event is becoming a popular regular fixture at the Arts Centre - and even if your item is not quite the masterpiece that you had hoped, it's worth coming along just to see some of the weird and wonderful items that everyone else has brought!

The event runs from 10am-1pm and valuations are free.

Celebrations to mark Beer Heights Light Railway's 40th anniversary

THERE'S a big buzz at Pecorama as preparations are underway for the exciting special events programme taking place over the course of the season. As 2015 marks the 40th Anniversary of the Beer Heights Light Railway, there will be a vintage and steam focus at the weekend Festival in June and during Gala Week in August (24-31), Pecorama will welcome well known BBC News Correspondent Ben Ando who will name the new commemorative steam locomotive on the Beer Heights Light Railway.

The first major event takes place in May, with the Vintage and Classic Car Rally on Sunday 24th and Registration Forms have continued to flood in promising yet another impressive display of classic vehicles from across the West Country and beyond.

Now in its fourteenth year, the event welcomes numerous stalwarts, some who have attended without fail since its inception. The event takes place in the Pecorama car parks and with the growing number of new comers there's always something new and attention-grabbing to see.

The Peco Steam and Vintage Festival on Saturday 13th and Sunday, June 14th promises to be a blast from the past and reminiscent of the popular steam events of years gone by. Guest exhibits will include full, half, one third and one quarter size traction engines, vintage tractors and vehicles. Honiton Brass Band will complement the atmosphere on Saturday, with Sidmouth Steppers 'stepping out' on Sunday.

On Saturday, June 12th, there will be a unique opportunity to ride the Beer Heights Light Railway and see Pecorama's beautiful gardens illuminated at the 'Midsummer Night's Steam' event.

Music at the Top Spot stage will be provided by local artists Alan West, Steve Black and Adam Sweet and a delicious spit roast BBQ and ride on the railway will be included in the ticket price of just £12.50 in advance or £15 on the gate.

Branscombe Brewery will run a licensed Bar and the event will be in support of Hospiscare Devon.

Don't miss out, contact us on 01297 21542 to book.

A very different type of event will take place in the grounds on the evening of Saturday the 27th of June, when the Inn Theatre Company will perform Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'. The 30 strong company will perform the popular family play at the Top Spot stage and ticket holders will be encouraged to bring along their own picnics and soak up the atmosphere in what we hope will be the first of many such events.

Tickets are limited so advance booking is advisable. Adults £10 Children £8, with tickets on the gate being Adults £12 and children £10.

SYMONDS & SAMPSON LANDLORDS WORKSHOP 21ST MAY 2015 5PM TO 7PM AT OUR AXMINSTER OFFICE

SYMONDS & Sampson's letting departments have seen property levels decreasing and the number of tenants seeking homes increasing. Demand is outstripping supply with more than one tenant applying for each property.

There has been a small increase of buy-to-let investors but more need to enter the market to satisfy tenant demand. Rising rents and improved mortgage deals are there to tempt investors into the market so Rachael James, Partner and Head of Symonds & Sampson's Letting Department has arranged a Landlords Workshop at the Axminster office in Trinity Square.

Melanie Beaton and Sarah Bolton from the lettings department will be on hand to discuss the new legislation and case law and how existing landlords are affected together with advice on market rental values. Symonds and Sampson manage more than 850 properties and are members of ARLA. We offer a wide range of services and offer our clients an individual package to suit most Landlords.

Rickey Stoodley in the sales department will also be very pleased to talk to any investment buyers about our two new home sites in the town. Devonshire Homes have a range of one, two and three bedroom properties from £116,950 and DTMR Developments offer a range of two and three bedroom homes from £169,950. Both sites are selling well, with few properties remaining at the Devonshire Homes site in Sector Lane. DTMR's Mitchell Gardens site in West Close is well placed for the town centre and railway station.

If you would like to attend the Landlord's Evening please email: mbeaton@symondsandsampson.co.uk. We will also be happy for you to drop in informally between 5pm and 7pm.

In the meantime here are some tips on what to consider when investing in a buy to let property.

Do your sums – Seek advice from our lettings department on the monthly rental against the cost of your monthly mortgage repayments. Don't forget to take into account voids where the property sits empty for a month or two.

Research the market – Choose an area where there are good facilities such as local shops, pubs, schools and public transport.

Tenants – Do not imagine yourself living in the property but put yourself in the shoes of your target tenant. Who are they and what do they want? Young professionals – modern and stylish. Families – They have their own belongings, so a blank canvass is essential.

Know the Legislation – It is essential that Landlords know their obligations under the law. A Landlord is classed as a commercial business under Health and Safety Rules and must be aware of responsibilities for such things as gas safety certificates and safe electrics.

Consider how hands-on you want to be – Buying a property is only the first step. Will you rent it out yourself or use an agent to do so?

Are you Happy with your existing Agent?

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday 21st May 2015 between 5pm and 7pm.

State-of-the-Art Technology

SEAT has chosen the Barcelona Motor Show to take the covers off of its New Ibiza. Making it one of the best and most multi-faceted offerings in its class, the latest version of the Spanish brand's iconic model comes with a raft of innovative technologies, new engines and equipment options, plus additional safety systems and, above all, a completely new connectivity and infotainment line-up.

The Ibiza's emotional and dynamic design continues to be well received by customers and is a central purchasing reason, so the team have focused their attention on new running gear which takes comfort to a whole new level, as well as upgrading the design and quality of the interior.

Connectivity is a central factor in today's world – and a focal point when it comes to developing SEAT models. In the new Ibiza, the Spanish brand is using the second generation of its Easy Connect infotainment systems. The new MediaSystem plus and satellite navigation system can be enhanced with the MirrorLink function, which provides seamless smartphone integration into the car infotainment system. Thanks to MirrorLink, mobile phone functions and a wide range of apps can be used safely inside the car, while SEAT has also taken the opportunity to develop its own app for MirrorLink, called SEAT DriveApp. SEAT can connect the most frequently smartphone systems. The Full Link (comprising MirrorLink, Android Auto and Apple CarPlay) connection between Easy Connect means that New Ibiza drivers are always connected, whatever smartphone they use and able to retain their full concentration on the road. In line with this connectivity, SEAT has announced a partnership agreement with SAMSUNG to develop technological solutions to provide total connectivity across its model range.

The exterior design of the Ibiza five-door, three-door SC (Sport Coupé) and the ST (Sport Tourer) are still absolutely up-to-the-minute and extremely well received by customers, so changes for the new model take in new headlights with LED day-time running lights, new 16- and 17-inch alloy wheel designs and two new paint colours, Moonstone Silver and Chilli Red.

Significantly upgraded interior

The concept behind the broad design appeal of the new interior is that it features fully customisable elements that resonate with everyone by striking a harmonious balance between expressivity, functionality and precision on each of the contours and surfaces that define the interior. Its horizontal proportions and the driver-oriented instrument panel provide enhanced driving pleasure, thanks to the arrangement of all the elements and its soft-touch finish. Attention to detail is displayed in every feature – on the steering wheel, the air vents, instrument cluster and radio. The new interface has been designed to highlight the relationship between the driver and technology by creating character lines that add functionality, while the screen design provides the driver with a physical reference.

The resulting interior design is a reflection of a product that has been inspired by and conceived in the surroundings of the beautiful city of Barcelona.

The Most Powerful Production Mini Ever

▲ The new MINI John Cooper Works

NOW the new MINI John Cooper Works, based on the latest MINI 3-door Hatch, has become the hottest new car on the streets of Britain.

Drawing on the much-loved British brand's 55 years of proud motorsport heritage, it is the most powerful production MINI ever. Its 2.0-litre MINI TwinPower Turbo four-cylinder engine delivers 231 hp and 320 Nm of torque.

Competition expertise has been put to good use in the design of the engine, suspension, brakes and aerodynamics. The exterior styling and interior trim also benefit from motorsport influence and distinguish the John Cooper Works as a model in its own right, totally distinct from the MINI Cooper S, while the sports exhaust system delivers a rich racing-inspired sound.

The figures alone mark the new John Cooper Works out as the sportiest MINI ever to be offered for sale. Acceleration from 0-62 mph takes just 6.3 seconds with the six-speed manual transmission – an improvement of 0.2 seconds, or three per cent, over the previous model – and an even more rapid 6.1 seconds with the optional six-speed Steptronic sports automatic gearbox, which includes Launch Control.

Driving flexibility and overtaking prowess have also been emphatically sharpened thanks to the 320 Nm of torque: acceleration from 50 to 75 mph is completed in 5.6 seconds (manual gearbox), a 10 per cent improvement over the previous model, and a time which puts many sports cars in the shade. With either transmission the top speed is 153 mph.

All of this has been achieved with the exemplary efficiency made possible by MINIMALISM – fuel-saving and emissions-reducing technologies, which are a feature of every model from MINI. With the manual gearbox, the new John Cooper Works has combined fuel consumption of 42.2 mpg with CO2 emissions pared to 155 g/km. With the automatic sports transmission there are even more spectacular improvements of almost 20 per cent over the previous model, with figures of 49.6 mpg and 133 g/km.

State-of-the-art engine based on racing expertise

Ever since legendary designer and performance specialist John Cooper, discovered the sporting talent of the classic Mini, his name has stood for maximum driving enjoyment and impressive competition success. The link between MINI and John Cooper Works is steeped in tradition, which is reflected in the latest engine to appear in a model bearing his name.

This, the most powerful unit to appear in a production MINI, is a transversely mounted four-cylinder engine which exhibits the latest advancements in power delivery, smoothness and efficiency. It features MINI TwinPower Turbo technology to deliver performance characteristics with unambiguous motorsport links.

The 2.0-litre capacity (1,998 cc) engine of the new John Cooper Works has a maximum power of 231 hp, available from 5,200 to 6,000 rpm – 10 per cent greater than the previous model – while the peak torque of 320 Nm, available from just 1,250 to 4,800 rpm, represents an improvement of 23 per cent.

Ford Introduces Free Service App for Smartphone Users

FORD has introduced a new service app designed to benefit the owners of Ford vehicles within the UK and across Europe.

The Ford service app, available to download for free on Apple iOS and Google Android devices, provides the user with local information and useful tips, including an ability to locate the nearest petrol station or Ford dealer.

A number of safety provisions are also available to the user. Using GPS, the app can identify the location of an accident anywhere in Europe and connect to the emergency services through the Ford Helpline. The app also provides first aid tips, including how to rescue someone from a vehicle and correctly place them in the recovery position, and safety instructions for what to do at the scene of an accident.

The service app enables the user to:

- Connect to the Ford Assistance Helpline in an emergency, using GPS to provide a location anywhere in Europe.
- Locate the nearest Ford dealer within the UK, providing an address, contact number and option to book a vehicle service.
- Identify international traffic signs and rules when driving abroad, and the function of vehicle warning lamps on the instrument panel. It also includes a Ford Technology guide with videos explaining Ford vehicle technologies.
- Browse Ford's range of vehicle accessories.

- Find out more about Ford's BlueService package, including Motorcraft 4+.
- Create a road trip or holiday checklist of what is required while travelling, including a 'Park Me' feature, which logs the location of where a vehicle is parked, and tracks the time elapsed since a parking ticket was issued.
- Create a 'damage report', which can generate a PDF report at the scene of an accident.

This is the latest addition to Ford's universal commitment to its retail customers, known as Ford BlueService. It is a collection of promises to assure customers that Ford is always by their side and ready to support them. Ford dealers can offer customers convenience through Online Service Booking, Ford One Call and Collection and delivery; trust and added value through Ford eCHECK and vehicle cleaning; and reassurance through complimentary comprehensive Roadside Assistance and Ford Accident Management.

Ford dealers offer a range of Motorcraft 4+ services to owners of vehicles which are more than four years old. This includes minor services for RRP £125 (including Roadside assistance), plus transparent, competitive pricing on tyres and common repairs and parts. Since its introduction visits by customers driving four year+ vehicles are up by 10 per cent and the average age of vehicle using the Motorcraft programme is 7.3 years old.

PROMISE

Expert Care. Optimum Performance.

When it comes to looking after your vehicle, we want to make it easy for you to know what your servicing and maintenance cost will be. The last thing you want to worry about is any unexpected hidden costs. That's why we've created the Originals fixed price range, which is available for Peugeot owners.

You'll benefit from:

PEUGEOT TRAINED TECHNICIANS

Trusted advice and expertise from highly trained Peugeot technicians - the people who know Peugeots inside and out.

PRICE MATCH GUARANTEE

We are so confident about our prices that if you find any of our maintenance offers cheaper within a five mile radius, we'll either match the quote or refund the difference.

WARRANTY

Our Peugeot Original Equipment Parts are covered by a minimum of 12 month's parts and labour warranty.

ORIGINALS FOR OPTIMUM PERFORMANCE

The Originals Maintenance Range is available to all Peugeot owners, with the Originals Servicing Range for older Peugeots (from 36 months onwards).

The New BMW 3 Series Saloon and Touring

THE BMW 3 Series has been a sales phenomenon, with 14 million cars sold since production began with the E21 model in 1975. During that time the model has defined the premium sports saloon segment with today around a quarter of all BMWs sold coming from the 3 Series range.

The new 3 Series Saloon and Touring models receive a subtle evolution to their front and rear styling, with new materials and highlights introduced to the interior to even further boost the sporting yet comfortable ambience.

Under the bonnet, the majority of engines are completely new and hail from the latest modular BMW EfficientDynamics engine family, with standout models such as the new three-cylinder 318i, the 326hp 340i, the 99g/km 320dED and the 335d with 630Nm of torque.

With further advancements to gearboxes, chassis dynamics and personalisation options, plus a huge array of advanced technology such as the new optional BMW Professional Navigation, the new BMW 3 Series is better equipped than ever before to continue the legend.

Design and equipment: refining excellence

The new BMW 3 Series has a strikingly attractive presence on the road. The distinctively sculpted long bonnet and setback passenger compartment combine with short front and rear overhangs, and a long wheelbase, to create the familiar dynamic proportions of a BMW. In its own way, these are as much a hallmark of a BMW as the perfect 50:50 weight distribution.

Revised headlights include optional LED units with LED indicators now positioned as "eyebrows" above the headlights. These full-LED headlights, which are even more efficient than the xenon headlights offered to date, work with the optional BMW Selective Beam system. The camera-based, anti-dazzle High Beam Assistant adjusts the car's lights using actuators to ensure the road is illuminated as well as possible without dazzling oncoming traffic and vehicles travelling ahead.

In addition, the "eyes" of the BMW 3 Series have moved further apart, visually strengthening the car's broad stance on the road. In cars with standard specification lighting, the headlights are joined by two LED daytime driving light units on each side. These light strips highlight the hallmark BMW twin headlight arrangement and link the headlight units with the traditional BMW kidney grille.

At the front, broader side air intakes are integrated into the sculptural form of the bumpers. The new, more intricate structure of the central air intake also allows the radar sensor for the Active Cruise Control (ACC) to be housed more discreetly. At the rear, the new rear lights are full-LED units. The light bars, arranged in a distinctive BMW "L" shape, are more heavily curved, and the integrated LED brake lights now respond faster. The two-piece LED indicators form a horizontal band of light across both sections of the rear lights and stretch into the boot lid (or the tailgate on the BMW 3 Series Touring).

New exhaust tail pipes are fitted to different models depending upon engine output. The range-topping BMW 340i features individual 80mm tailpipes on the left and right, while the engines for the 320i and 320d models upwards now come with dual tailpipes, each 70mm in diameter. The tailpipe for the entry-level models measures 75mm in diameter. There is also a new range of wheels, with rims up to 19 inches in diameter available as an option, and 20-inch wheels can be selected from the Original BMW Accessories range.

Local sport round-up

by Howard Larcombe

Rebuild begins for managerless Blues
Drimpton and Merriott complete superb campaigns

MIDWEEK ROUND-UP
MONDAY, May 4th
Drimpton 1 Waytown Hounds 0
JACK VENN CUP FINAL

FOR the second successive year Waytown Hounds slipped to a single goal defeat in the Jack Venn Cup Final at Combe St Nicholas.

The all-important winner came from the Division's top scorer Terry Farrell in 21st minute.

For Drimpton, who lifted the trophy for the second time (previously 1988-89), it completes a memorable season.

The club won the Division Two league title by a whopping 12-point margin, and also had an appearance in the recent Tommy Taberner cup final at Lyme Regis where they were beaten by neighbours Beaminstor Reserves 6-5 on pens after a 3-3 draw.

SOMERSET LEAGUE

DESPITE taking a useful point from the visit of fifth-placed Clutton ILMINSTER TOWN's three-year stay in the Somerset Premier Division is over.

A defensive error saw Clutton lead 1-0 at half time. Chris Neziyanya grabbed the equaliser on the hour, but the winner wouldn't come and the Blues' fate was sealed by Nailsea Town's 3-0 win over visiting Minehead.

This means all four of the Blues' teams have been relegated this season.

One small crumb of comfort for Ilminster is that they will now be able to look forward to local-derby matches down in Division One (west) against COMBE ST NICHOLAS who have of course runaway with the Division Two (west) championship this year.

It is believed that next season's matches will be the first league encounters between the two club's respective first teams since 1936-37 when they met in the Perry Street & District League.

New manager required

ILMINSTER Town will head down into Division One with a new first team manager as current club chairman Darren Manley, who took on the role on a caretaker basis up until Christmas, and was then helped by his brother Simon, has stated he will not be stepping into the position again.

"It has nothing to do with the relegation, I just want to concentrate on playing for the Reserves," said Manley who has held the position, on and off, for more than 10 years.

Anybody interested in the role should contact IFC Secretary Andy Fish on

Chard Town Reserves 2 Thorverton 0
D & E PREMIER

SECOND-half strikes from Ed Butcher and Adam Tovey saw Chard Town Reserves bag three points at Zembard Lane last Wednesday evening.

The Robins had the best of the opening 45 but failed to pierce the Thors' defence.

The breakthrough came from Butcher in the 66th minute and the points were sealed when James Boyland burst down the flank before crossing for Adam Male to score.

◆ COMBE ST NICHOLAS' hopes of an appearance in the Seaton Challenge Cup Final were ended by defeat against new D&E Division One champions Honiton Town at Slades Cross on Wednesday evening.

Jack Knight and Tom Perryman scored the goals for the Hippos in a 2-0 victory over a mixed Saints' line-up.

Honiton will face Seaton Town in the final at Colyford Road on Saturday, May 16th (3pm).

Friday, May 8th
DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP FINAL
MERRIOTT ROVERS 3 THORNCOMBE 2

MERRIOTT Rovers came from behind to complete a cup treble with victory at Perry Street on Friday evening.

Thorncombe, celebrating promotion from Division Two, took the lead in the 14th minute when Lee Fisher made no mistake from the penalty spot after Mark Tweedie had handled in the area.

But Rovers were level six minutes later courtesy of a fine Mike Browncey header.

The Thorns responded well and Bryan Garrett restored the lead 10 minutes before the interval.

It appeared as though this could well prove to be the winner as the game headed into the last 10 minutes.

However, top-scorer Ash Cooper had other ideas and brought the Division Four champions level with a header for his 49th goal of the season.

Then, with extra time looming large Sam Rowsell nodded home the winner from a last minute corner to ensure the cup returned to Merriott for the first time in 20 years and clinch a 30th consecutive win.

Thorverton 3 Chard Town Reserves 0

A DEPLETED CHARD Town Reserves, with manager Stu Parris forced to dust off his keeping gloves, brought the curtain down on a satisfactory season with a disappointing 3-0 defeat at Thorverton.

The result sees the Robins, who had won their previous four matches finish in a mid-table 8th position.

SOMERSET LEAGUE

ALREADY relegated ILMINSTER TOWN completed their time in the Premier Division with a 3-1 defeat at bottom-of-the-table Broad Plain House.

The Blues led through an Adam Male goal at half-time but the hosts stormed back after the turnaround.

Meanwhile, Division Two (east) champions COMBE ST NICHOLAS rang the changes and were beaten in their last game of the season with a 2-0 defeat on the Slades Cross Slope at the hands of Uphill castle.

motor sport rally

Top seeding justified

BROADWAY Rally driver Gary Le Coadou and Plymouth based co-driver Carl Sorensen won the Cornium Stages Rally in their Burts Chips supported Toyota Corolla WRC.

The event which was held at Down Ampney, Gloucestershire was a participating round of three Regional Championships and attracted a full entry of 70 other crews from around the UK.

The Toyota Corolla was seeded as car no. 1 at the but had some very stiff opposition with another top seed Martyn England in his maiden event in a freshly built Mitsubishi E10.

Gary and Carl threw caution to the wind on the first two stages to pull out an 11 second advantage over Martyn closely followed by Dean Thomas in his Davrian and Philip Hopkins Mitsubishi Evo6 The next two stages saw Martyn and co-driver wife Dawn pull back eight seconds narrowing the lead to just three seconds after 27 miles of flat out driving.

Gary had noticed on Stage 5 that at 130mph the car felt rather twitchy under braking. When the car returned to service after Stage 6 the team's mechanics found that a loose wheel bearing was the cause. This was changed in record time allowing the pair to set fastest times over the remaining two stages.

Unfortunately for the England's on the last stage, they suffered a stall in a hairpin bend allowing the Toyota to win by nearly a minute.

Gary would like to thank Burts Chips Ltd and PCS Furnishing Centre for their support and Service Crew Bill, Charlie, Rob and Scott who worked under immense pressure to keep the car going to the end of the event. For more information on the Teams upcoming events visit www.toyotarally.co.uk

Unbeaten Upwoman off to flying start

Week ending May 2nd

Pool A: Upwoman made it a hat-trick of wins with a 67-46 victory over Beer Blazers.

It was the Blazers' biggest defeat of the campaign despite good work from Alex Adkin. They were no match for the power of Upwoman for whom Andrea Britton turned in a fine display.

Otters were in strong form beating Sidmouth Toucans Old Birds 54-24 with Emily Vicary playing well, Vikki Russell had a fine game for Toucans.

Tip Top Trees held onto the second spot with a good 57-48 win against Otter Valley Dairy.

With Rachel Cavin playing well for Trees they overcame their small goal disadvantage to take an early lead and they never looked back, despite a fine effort for Sarah Broom for Otter Valley

Dairy.

Meanwhile, Swagger Mamas went down 72-53 against Signs South West. It wasn't until the third quarter that SSW took the lead against the hard working Mamas for whom Mimi Khan played well.

The experience of SSW showed through and Debbie Wheeler was in fine form.

Pool B: Howden Hawks were up against Blackdown Ladies and started 20 goals adrift.

Although they worked hard, with Paige Faye doing especially well, the Ladies dug deep with Laura Parrett in fine form they held out to win 53-46.

Pixies started 12 up on JD Tyres and, with Asilah Jarrald leading the team well, they led 49-45 going into the final quarter. But Tanya Broom found extra her shooting form and transformed defeat into a 57-55 victory.

OTTERY ST MARY

with Mike Smith
ON Sunday, May 3rd Ottery welcomed the first of four touring sides to visit the club this week.

WEST MIDLANDS POLICE were first up, on this occasion

Ottery proved too strong winning three rinks and drawing on two. Tony Bushell, Mick Cissell, Joan Saunders & skip Mike Smith being the best winning rink 34-11.

The next day WESTLECOT were the visitors bringing six triples, Ottery were again in good form winning on four rinks, drawing one and only losing on one rink.

The best winning rinks this time, with a shot difference of 14, were that of: Chris Hawks, Joan Saunders & skip Peter Jones, and Kevin Vernon, Sharon Kenny & skip George Kille, the overall match score was 100-88 in Ottery's favour.

WEST MIDLANDS POLICE were the visitors again the very next day, this time the weather proved to be the winner with the match being abandoned after 14 ends with the "Police" leading on all four rinks.

In the Over 60s Triples League the A team continued their good start to the season with a six-point win over TOPSHAM C, skip Brian Baker, Terry House and John Pethick ensuring the overall win with a 20-11 victory.

The B team lost at home against FENITON by six shots.

The C team got their season underway with an away fixture at BELMONT C. Graham White, Brian Braund and skip Mick Cissell had a fine 20-19 win, but with a loss on the other rink they came away with two points.

In the Two Counties League Ottery travelled to HONITON who proved much too strong winning on all four rinks.

The final match of the week saw another touring side visiting, WEST SUSSEX with seven all male rinks were Ottery's next guests.

On a fine sunny day the visitors won on four rinks, Ottery winning on three, but with two heavy rink defeats West Sussex won the match 155-108.

Ottery's best winning rink were Dot Luff, Brian Braund, Mick Cissell and skip Brian Baker 25-14.

County competitions are now underway and in the mixed pairs Sharon Kenny & Mike Smith defeated Ottery colleagues Shirley Fewtrell & Eric Saunders 21-16.

ILMINSTER with Des Maull

Lenton retains Beer Blazer crown

HONITON with Judy Davey

FIVE Honiton Running Club members lined up along with 37,000 other runners to take part in the recent 35th LONDON MARATHON.

Hadleigh Davies was the first Honiton runner home coming 5297th in a time of 3 hours 25 minutes. He was followed less than three minutes later by Judy Davey who finished 5,918th in 3:28 delighted to break the 3½ hour barrier for the first time in five years.

Hadleigh and Judy have taken part in several London Marathons before but it was the first time for the other Honiton members.

Liam Dushynsky led this group home having only started running when his London place was confirmed. He was delighted to beat the 4½ hour time by two minutes to come 21,466th overall.

Klara Bodfish was running for the Breast Cancer Campaign and had managed to raise over £2000. She struggled after 20 miles but finished strongly in 5 hours 3 minutes.

Kelly Allison had also raised a lot of money for her charity; Multiple Sclerosis Society for her cousin who has the disease. Kelly finished in 30,492nd place in a time of 5:11.

On the same day Ben Stone took part in the hilly 48-mile Evesham Ultra. He completed it in 7 hours 32 minutes coming an incredible 3rd place overall out of 70 entrants just five minutes behind 2nd place.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter THERE was a fantastic number of entries in the Beer Blazer series of races.

The one-mile children's run attracted a record 80 runners. The Boys winner was Harvey Green with Josh Comer 2nd and Sam Eyre 3rd.

Hattie Trumlett won the girls race followed by Innis Fitzgerald and Alice Clarke. Oliver Rodger was the victor in the male 5K race, ahead of Max Bowskill and Thomas Lilley.

Phoebe Clarke won the female 5K with Mia Bartlett 2nd and Katelyn Wells 3rd.

In the 10K main event AVR's Tim Lenton retained his title and was followed home by Kevin Hawker and Ian Stewart.

Jayne Alison was the ladies 10K victor followed by AVR's Eleanor Wood and Clare Hansford.

Congratulations go to race director Katherine Reed and the Beer School PTFa for a great event that has raised over £1,000.

They were keen to thank the local farmers for allowing the run across their land, in particular Rick Dormer and Robert Reed. Luke Reed did his first Triathlon of the season on Sunday, a Sprint Distance at the Cotswolds water park near Cirencester.

After a solid winter of training Luke made a good start here finishing 19th overall out of 319 and second in his age category.

The Race consisted of a 400m open water lake swim, 20k flat Bike ride and 5k multi terrain run, his splits were, 6:51 for the swim, 30:44 for the bike and the 17:26 for the run giving him an overall time of 57:04.

Next week Luke is competing in the SLATEMAN TRIATHLON in North Wales.

Rosie Thoennissen competed in her first ever Triathlon - the Exe Novice Triathlon in Tiverton finishing 15th out of 42 competitors and 8th fastest woman out of 31.

Anna Drew crossed the line rounding off three marathons in a month, Andy Mear then took the honours in the battle to the line with Addie Douglass.

Gavin Wyatt pushed hard all the way to the line for a fantastic run, while Paul Fraser was really under the weather towards the end of his 3rd marathon in four weeks, Helen Baxter rounded off CRR's results in only her 2nd marathon.

Chard runners prove worthy of iconic capital city challenge
